

Super Tutor

Listed below are some things to keep in mind when tutoring. We are all different tutors in our own way, with individual skills, gifts and ways of educating. If you think that you cover all the areas perfectly, then congratulations! You are a Super Tutor!

Aware - Of Child's Moods and behaviour

- * Of the time
- * Of the needs of each child
- * Of how well they are participating
- * Of the Environment and others around you
- * Of what you have done, and what is coming up

Brave - Being assertive

- * Trying new things
- * Hold firm in actions
- * Being consistent in your behaviour

Caring - Concerned for them as students and people

- * Realising when they are struggling
- * Dealing with mistakes in a positive manner
- * Affection and hugs (if you feel comfortable)
- * Sharing your ideas and life with them
- * Be their friend

Dedicated - Arriving on time

- * Being prepared
- * Being there regularly
- * Being an advocate
- * Putting in when times are tough
- * Remembering as much as you can about them

Enthusiastic - Smiling and laughing is contagious

- * Verbal Encouragement all the time
- * Being excited about learning
- * Being excited about being there for them
- * Set a variety of tasks